Online

There's lots of exciting new content on the CBBC and CBeebies websites this autumn to support CBBC's programmes.

What's on www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc this autumn? Dick & Dom have a brand new site on CBBC Online – so if the madness of the programme isn't enough, click on CBBC for more games and antics. There's also a new sport page, and the Blue Peter website will be getting its very own makeover. There are lots of new animations on the way too.

And www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies has plenty to offer smaller viewers. Tikkabilla has a new website full of games and songs. The Tweenies site has new games such as the Harvest game and the Racing game. CBeebies Online also has a new interactive Build A House section where children can make their own house in different styles, arrange their furniture and wallpaper and dress up the dolls. And there's a new Sing-A-Long section too!

CBBC now has a single dedicated phone line for use on all its shows:
The number is 090 11 900 500.

Calls are charged at 10 pence per call and callers should ask permission from the person paying the bill before phoning.
